WE REMEMBER IN OUR PRAYERS Betty Statham whose Funeral was last week. We remember her and her family, and all those whose anniversaries are at this time. May they rest in God's peace.

WE ALSO REMEMBER IN OUR PRAYERS all our parishioners who are ill, especially Dominic Barlow, Thomas McShane, Christina Wadland, Rita Griffiths, Mavis McQuillen, Monica and Harry Likover, Emily Richardson, Win and Peter Campbell, Ann Blyth, Colette Coates, Carol Rowlands, Gerry Diamond, Margaret Sadler, Dennis White, Bill Røse-Quirie, John Bostock, Diane McKenzie, Teresa Doherty, Marion Broxton, Bob Walker, Betty McCafferty, Susan Crahan, Bunty Bradley, Pauline Hall and all those who receive Holy Communion at home.

A VERY BIG THANK YOU: Last weekend, at both our churches, Lily Shoulder asked us for help so that she can go with our Diocesan Youth Pilgrimage to Lourdes this July. This weekend Lily has a very grateful message for us. She writes: “I wanted to say a personal thank you to all of you for your kind and generous support. In total you have kindly raised £559.13. Thanks to your support, I have now raised enough to go on the Lourdes Youth Pilgrimage 2019. On my return I will be happy to share my photographs with you all! Once again, a very big thank you.”

THIS SUNDAY IS WORLD COMMUNICATIONS DAY In his message for this day, Pope Francis invites us all to reflect on the foundations and importance of our ‘being-in-relation’ and to rediscover, in the challenges of the current communication context, the desire of the human person who does not want to be left isolated and alone. While governments seek legal ways to regulate the digital world and to protect the original vision of a free, open and secure network in the world wide web, we all have the possibility and the responsibility to promote its positive use.

We can always seek new, innovative ways to share and promote the joy of the Gospel. Those specifically dedicated to this work, such as the Diocesan Communications Officers and the small team at the Bishops’ Conference do an inspiring job with few resources. The work around the Youth Synod for instance, has filled many people with help. The photos recording the events of the life of our Church are freely available to anyone who wishes to use them and some 49 Million people across the world have already done so. Please assist this crucial work by your generosity to the collection which is taken today. Please visit and encourage others to visit www.catholicnews.org.uk and if you would like to sign up for the twice daily news bulletins, please email ccn@cbcew.org.uk

YOUR PARISH NEEDS YOU! (WEEK 2) Thank you for the response last week to our request for help. In case you didn’t feel called to respond to those particular parish groups, here are some more:

1. Musicians: there may be an opportunity to involve other styles of music worship from time to time so if you are interested and can play any kind of instrument this might be for you.
2. As with the church cleaners mentioned last week, there are times when we need extra offertory collectors so if you feel you could go on a list of those who might be able to help in times of need then please let us know.
3. Interest has been expressed by several parishioners about tours to the Holy Land. Unfortunately, no one has come forward with the confidence to lead the organisation of such a trip, so if that person could be you then please let us know.

If you feel you may be in a position to help with these groups or the ones mentioned in last week’s Bulletin, even if only sporadically, then please get in touch with Adam on 01253 423047 and leave a message or email him on adambajk@gmail.com.

THIS YEAR THE ANNUAL SERVICE FOR PENTECOST, and the annual Talk with a guest speaker, both organised by all our local churches, is being combined into one service at Cleveleys Baptist Church on St George’s Avenue. This is on Wednesday, 5 June at 7.30 pm, and the guest speaker is Rev Dr Nigel Wright. All are very welcome.

THE LAST DEANERY MASS FOR EASTERTIME is also this Wednesday, 5 June, 7 pm in the Chapel at Cardinal Allen High School, Fleetwood.

WE CONGRATULATE AND PRAY FOR EVERY BLESSING for Jim and Ann Cleary, who this week celebrate their 65th Wedding Anniversary.
