A BIG THANK YOU

- To all those who supported the Quarantore at St Teresa's last weekend, taking time to 'watch in prayer' before the Blessed Sacrament, for all those who attended the Healing Service on Sunday, and for those who prepared the beautiful flowers.
- For those who attended the Mass with the Bishop at St Winifride's. the Priest's Retirement Home, on Thursday, including some of our parishioners who helped to organise it.
- For your generosity in supporting the Special Collection for the Good Shepherd Fund last weekend, raising £241.42 at St Teresa's and £30.65 at St John Southworth.

CHURCH GARDENS AT ST TERESA'S One of our parishioners. John Dover, has very kindly volunteered to be the lead person in looking after and cultivating the flowers in the church gardens at St Teresa's. As you might appreciate this is not a small task.

If anyone would be willing to offer even a small amount of their time in helping John please tell Fr Chris or email John on john.dover567@btinternet.com. Even help with weeding would be appreciated.

NEXT WEEKEND 3rd/4th August, members of St Teresa's Parish Pastoral Council will be at the back of church hoping that some of you will volunteer some portion of your time to help with any or the various ministries which underpin the smooth running of St Teresa's Church community. Please do volunteer if you can.
