WE ALSO REMEMBER IN OUR PRAYERS all our parishioners who are ill, especially Dominic Barlow, Thomas McShane, Christine Wadland, Mavis McQuillen, Harry Likover, Peter Campbell, Ann Blyth, Colette Coates, Carol Rowlands, John Bostock, Diane McKenzie, Teresa Doherty, Marion Broxton, Bob Walker, Susan Crahan, Pauline Hall, Alison Leece, Nigel Sillis, Michael Taylor, Gerry Diamond, Yvonne Rawcliffe, Muriel Gradwell, Gerard Brimelow, Mary Ciotkowski, Carole Healey, Ian Richardson, Pam Mitchell, Matthew Smith and all those who receive Holy Communion at home.

LENT BEGINS THIS WEDNESDAY (26 FEBRUARY) – ASH WEDNESDAY

THIS YEAR’S ‘WORLD DAY OF PRAYER’ – FORMERLY THE WOMEN’S WORLD DAY OF PRAYER- is on Friday, 6 March, with a service for all our local churches at the United Reformed Church on Rossall Road at 2 pm. All are very welcome.

VIDEO PROJECTOR SCREEN – We are poised to invest in a new development in the form of a retractable projector screen that will hopefully provide a further means to communicate the Mass. Initially it will be used to project the readings of the Mass and the hymns. In many ways, the hardware aspect is the easiest part of the project, The hardest part will be finding people to initiate and operate the system.

If any of you are remotely computer literate, are good at typing or have a working knowledge of Power Point, and/or would be willing to give your time at Mass, we would be most grateful if you could come forward. Age is not an issue.

If you think you might be able to help in any way, please contact Adam on 01253 423047, and don’t be afraid to leave a message, and your telephone number.

ST TERESA’S GIRL GUIDING need volunteer Leaders and unit helpers. Without new Leaders we are now at risk of having to close units - the units are the - Rainbows, Brownies and Guides – which have done so much good work for the younger people of our community for years. Please contact Kathryn Brimelow (Tel 07522 146571) for further information.

FIT FOR FUTURE - KEEP FIT is an Over 60’s enjoyable, gentle exercise class, involving stretches, balancing and easy physical activity games, with a small friendly group. A fully qualified instructor is in attendance. Come along and see how exercise can be fun.

We meet every Monday morning, 10 am - 11 am in St Teresa’s Parish Hall. All are very welcome... give us a try.

PLEASE NOTE: The Mass at St Teresa’s this Friday, 28 February is the Funeral Mass of Winifred Campbell at 11 am.
